American Financial Network, (AFN) has built a name for itself as an Independent Financial Solutions Firm. An experienced Financial Advisor, for over 20 years, Keith Ellen, strives to help clients meet their long-term financial goals.

American Financial Network provides a highly customized approach to Wealth Management and Corporate Benefit Planning Services with access to a vast menu of investment products and a network of accomplished financial professionals. As an independent company, AFN offers a vast menu of financial products & services. As financial advisors with Securities America Advisors, Inc., the advisors at AFN offer unbiased financial planning and investment advice and have the ability to partner with other accomplished financial service providers. Over the years clients have entrusted the advisors at AFN to set up comprehensive financial plans focusing on key areas such as Retirement Planning, College Planning, Estate Planning, Tax Strategies and Insurance. Businesses rely on AFN for Compensation & Benefit Solutions such as Qualified 401(k) & Profit Sharing Plans, Deferred Compensation and other Non-Qualified Plans, Executive Bonus Plans, Captives, Key-Man Insurance and more.

Committed to building long-term relationships with clients, American Financial Network also offers in-depth quarterly reviews, educational workshops, plus service and support that we feel is among the best in the industry. As a result, the AFN client base has grown to include a great number of highly successful corporations and business executives.

Over the years Keith has been actively involved in many charities especially for local schools and educational causes. As a parent volunteer, he has also served in various capacities for youth programs including coaching for many years in basketball. In addition Keith has been involved in supporting Big Brothers/Big Sisters, the Wellness Community and The American Cancer Society.

Keith Ellen upholds a hands-on proactive approach to his practice. He is an Investment Advisor Representative with Securities America Advisors and holds the following industry licenses: 6, 7, 22, 63 & 65. (CA Insurance License #0738342) He is also a Registered Representative of and offers securities through Securities America, Inc., a full service broker/dealer serving independent investment professionals nationwide. Throughout his career, Mr. Ellen has been honored frequently by colleagues for his outstanding performance in investment management and client service.

American Financial Network strives to offer clients the optimum investment environment by providing the strength and opportunity provided by larger financial institutions, along with the personalized service and hands-on approach of a smaller more intimate firm.
